

LESSON 12: Activity 2

Jack's story

Imagine you are Jack...

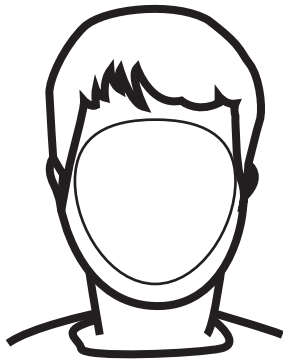

Read the text and complete the tasks outlined below:

Last New Year's Eve you decided to take on board what your friend Jill had been saying to you for years and you made a resolution to manage your money a bit better.

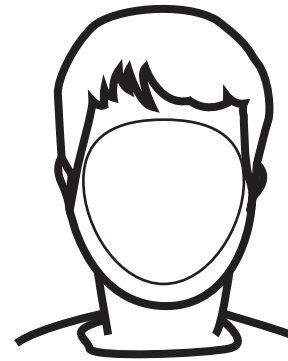

Luckily you have a good job and once you put your mind to it you were able to pay off your debts and begin to save some money.

You were seriously thinking about buying your own house and getting your foot on the property ladder, but then Jill, who lost her job and has used up all her savings came to you looking for a loan of money...

1. Draw how being asked by Jill for a loan of money makes you feel:

3. Draw how you would feel if Jill said she wasn't able to pay you back?

2. Are you going to ask Jill when she will pay you back? (circle either Yes or No)

Yes

No

Draw how you think this will make her feel:

