

LESSON 12: Activity 2

Jill's story

Imagine you are Jill... Read the text and complete the tasks outlined below:

You lost your job in March and although you have tried really hard to find another job you haven't had any luck.

After a couple of months of being unemployed you were forced to start dipping into your savings to pay for rent, petrol for your car and other bills.

You are now at the point where your savings are all gone. You need to do something because your rent is due next week and you don't have the money to pay it.

Jack has gotten his act together recently and has even managed to save some money so you have decided to talk to him about the possibility of a loan...

1. Draw how having to ask Jack for a loan of money makes you feel:

2. Imagine you were unable to pay Jack back in the time that you agreed when you borrowed the money Draw how this would make you feel:

3. What would you do in this situation?
